Legal Disclaimer Regarding Accuracy of Information

Visitors to the Website are advised information contained within the pages of the Website is believed to be accurate. However, no claims, promises or guarantees about the accuracy, completeness, or adequacy of the information are made. Visitors are encouraged to review the official version of all documents upon which they plan to rely.

Legal Disclaimer Regarding Links to Other Sites

Some of the linked sites are not under the control of the City of St. Cloud. Therefore, the City of St. Cloud makes no representations concerning their content, and is not responsible for their content. That the City of St. Cloud has provided a link to a site is not an endorsement, or an indication of affiliation with the sites' owners or publishers. There are risks in using any information, software, services or products found on the Internet; and the City of St. Cloud cautions you to make sure that you completely understand these risks before retrieving, using, relying upon, or purchasing anything via the Internet.

Notification that Information Provided by You is Public Information

Any information provided by you to the City of St. Cloud, including but not limited to feedback, questions, comments, and suggestions are non-confidential; moreover, such information is a public record subject to public inspection pursuant to law. The City of St. Cloud has no obligation of any kind with respect to such information and is free to reproduce, use, and disclose the information to others without limitation.

E-mail Addresses

Under Florida law, e-mail addresses are public records. If you do not want your e-mail address released in response to a public-records request, do not send electronic mail to this entity. Instead, contact the city office by phone or in writing.

No Commercial Use

To the extent allowed by the Public Records Act, commercial use of the website materials is prohibited without the written permission of the City of St. Cloud.

E-Mail Not Legal Notice

Communications made through E-Mail and messaging system shall in no way be deemed to constitute legal notice to the City of St. Cloud or any of its agencies, officers, employees, agents, or representatives, with respect to any existing or potential claim or cause of action against the city or any of its agencies, officers, employees, agents, or representatives, where notice to the City is required by any federal, state or local laws, rules, or regulations.
